

Cline River Map

Falls on Cline River

A little bit of bushwhacking along this easy walking trail, that is 3.6 km long or about two hours. This trail is perfect for that early evening stroll.

Pinto Lake Loop

Another trail that is a full day of easy walking and a little bit of bushwhacking. Covering a distance 6.8 km this trail leads to a cave partway around the lake.

Pinto Lake Lookout

This half day, 13 km hike offers up some of the most wonderful views of this panoramic region.

Stelfox Loop

The duration of this hike will take a full day as it is 21.8 km. This steady climb gains 555m and has many streams to cross as you enjoy this scenic hike.

Batus Canyon

This area is well known as the training grounds for the British Army Training Unit. It is in this canyon that the British forces practice rock climbing, this gorge is very dangerous, as a soldier from the British military did lose his life here.

Sentinel Creek

Only a half day or 9.8 km will take you through the Cline River Country. In all it's glory this popular hike will display some of the regions most amazing sites.

Coral Ridge

A steady walk on a hard packed trail with bushwhacking and ends with an easy scramble. This tough climb will reward you with views of the valleys, Abraham Lake and the North Saskatchewan River valley will be absolutely stunning.

Cline & Coral Canyons Loop

Having well cared for paths makes this hike an easy walk to the end of the trail. Where you will find and enjoy a fabulous view of Coral Creek.

Pinto Lake Trail

Four days is the time that you will require to complete this hike that covers a distance 65.4 km. Along the hike you will have to cross the stream a few times so wear the proper footwear.

Waterfalls Creek

This full day 15.3 km hike passes over a very rough trail with deadfall as well as bushwhacking.