

Siffleur River Map

Loudon Creek

A long 14.6 km as well as dusty road, leads the way to the beautiful Loudon Creek and its cliffs high above the creek.

Siffleur Falls Trail

Beware on this trail, as there are dangerous slopes as well as other people. The full day 14 km hike is well worth it, and to on carrying on to the second and third falls along the Siffleur River.

Terrace Walk

Enjoy the leisurely walk with the whole family. The 5.9 km or half day walk takes you to beautiful views of the North Saskatchewan River Valley.
